PLENIO
2015

Great freshness, vitality and floral freshness on the nose make this a standout wine for the appellation. Long, very dry but elegant finish with the structure to give this long aging potential. Drink or hold.

CASAL DI SERRA
2017

Lovely, ripe-pear character with a hint of baking spice, making this generous and quite richly textured white enticing. The finish is long and fresh. From organically grown grapes. Drink now.

CAMPO SAN GIORGIO
2013

This shows plenty of concentration on the nose with blackberry crumble and baking spices, but there's also a fine sense of licorice, mint, oyster shell and minerals. Full-bodied and nicely fresh on the palate. Layers of blue fruit and velvety tannins cascade through the medium-long finish. Drink in 2020.
93 POINTS

CUMARO
2014

Shows dark plums and cherries, blackberry bush, dried herbs and balsamic vinegar. Medium to full body, some nicely chewy tannins and a bright finish. Drink now.

SAN LORENZO
2016

Lots of licorice and elderberry on the nose, announcing a red that lies far from modern wine trends with fresh tannins lifting the medium-full body. A clove note at the vivid finish. Drink now.
92 POINTS

PELAGO
2014

This shows some fine herbs, capsicum and blackcurrant purée. Medium body, fine tannins and a fresh finish. Drink now.
